

JAPAN WEEKLY KICKSTART

Near-term conflict resolution remains elusive

Summary of the week

TOPIX: 3,649.69 (1.1%) / NK225: 53,373.07 (0.0%)

- Top sectors: Insurance, Oil & Coal
- Bottom sectors: Other Products, Real Estate

In this week's Japan Weekly Kickstart we focus on our latest TOPIX target revisions, which were first highlighted in Higher for longer energy prices imply lower earnings and targets (26 March 2026). Our commodity analysts have raised their oil and gas price forecasts based on the expectation of longer disruptions in the Strait of Hormuz, as well as an increase in strategic stockpiling. In response to our commodity analysts' new base case assumption of a six-week impact on the Strait of Hormuz flows, our economists have also updated their Asian regional forecasts. We lower our 3M/6M/12M TOPIX targets from 3900/4100/4300 to 3800/4000/4200 to reflect lower earnings growth due to higher energy prices.

- Japan markets stabilized slightly, but global investor sentiment remains fragile: While market performance was generally more robust last week, we believe that expectations of a quick resolution to the conflict in the Middle East have moderated considerably.
- Insurers and Defensive stocks led the Japanese market last week: It was our Insurers (+9% wow) index that was the best-performer last week after Berkshire Hathaway took a stake in Tokio Marine Holdings (+25% wow). Defensive indices like Pharma (+5% wow) and Healthcare (+5% wow) also did very well.
- Domestic stocks starting to outperform due to continued global uncertainty: Despite the continued rise in USDJPY, we note in Exhibit 3 that domestic stocks have started to outperform since start of US-Iran conflict. Exhibit 4 shows the components of our domestic stock basket (GSJPDOMS).
- Foreigners and Domestic were net sellers, Individuals were net buyers: According to the latest data from the TSE, for the week 16-19 March, Foreigners and Domestic Institutions net sold -¥491bn and -¥260bn of TSE Prime cash equities respectively, while Individuals net bought ¥309bn.

Appendix One - Methodology

Our original analysis which has now been integrated into the Japan Weekly Kickstart format focuses on sector and thematic performance of the more liquid portion of the Japanese equities market. This is defined as any Japanese stocks that trade over US$20mn advt. We believe that a significant number of our clients have liquidity constraints which require them to limit their stand-alone positions to this particular universe. By our calculations, there are 271 stocks in Japan that trade above this liquidity threshold as of Dec 17 2025.

We have sub-divided this universe into 45 equal weighted indices that focus on either MSCI-defined sectors and sub-sectors, or areas of thematic focus that stretch across multiple sectors (such as High Dividend Yield or Gaming). For these thematic indices, we have relied either on quantitative measures and/or GS Equity analyst input on component selection. We hope to expand the number of indices over time and would welcome client feedback on any areas of thematic interest we should focus on.

We track the performance of the equal-weighted sector, sub-sector and thematic indices over time and also measure the spread between the best-performing and the worst-performing stocks within the index. For example, Exhibit 32 illustrates both the volatility of the mean weekly performance in the liquid SPE index (the dark blue line), and the weekly Best-Worst spreads within the index (the light blue cloud).

Exhibit 32: SPE index 52 week equal-weighted cumulative weekly performance and best-worst spreads

Source: FactSet, Data compiled by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

The criteria we have used in our analysis of the liquid Japanese equities market can be summarized as follows:

- Total universe consists of Japanese stocks with a 6-month adv of over US$20mn (271 stocks as of Dec 17 2025).
- The universe will be refreshed every year.
- Indices are all equal-weighted.
- Index component selection is based on MSCI sector and sub-sector definitions, quantitative factors and/or GS single-stock Equity Analyst guidance.
- The same stock can appear in multiple indices.
- The Best-Worst spread is based on the difference between the best performing and worst performing component within each index.
- The first 12 months of trading of any new listing are not included in the index performance.

We anticipate that the number of indices will be adjusted over time and would welcome any client feedback on other areas within the liquid Japan equities universe we should be focused on.
